WALLA WALLA — Something about Borleske Stadium here gives Richland football players a bad case of the fumbles. Last year in the stadium, the Bombers lost five bobbles and dropped the game 20-6.

Friday night they gave the ball away three times and lost the game 23-21.

Take away the breaks and the teams were evenly matched.

Walla Walla scored late in the first quarter, on a 24-yard pass. On the kickoff Bomber Bill Johnson ran it back to the 25 and the ball was jarred loose, with Walla Walla recovering on the 22.

Gene Bates hit the line on the second play and he fumbled, but the ball squirted ahead 9 yards and two Wa-Hi downfield blockers pounced on it, on the 14.

A pass ate nine yards and Bates ground out four more. Then they traveled by inches until Bates went over.

Struggling to overcome the breaks, the Bombers sprang Johnson loose on a pitchout from the 40 and he went all the way on one of his speed jaunts. Danny Neth made it 14-7.

A few minutes later Johnson dropped the ball again on the Richland 43 and Walla Walla took advantage of it, scoring in eight plays.

Wa-Hi drove 48 yards for another marker early in the fourth quarter and the Bombers pulled themselves together to drive 70 yards for one of their own.

With only four minutes left and with 14 big points, Wa-Hi began to use a few substitutes. About that time, Dwayne Muller slapped the ball into the mid-section of Danny Neth and sent him through the middle.

Then he pulled the ball away and pitched it to Johnson who sped 46 yards around left end and made it 28-21 with Neth's good kick.

An on-side kick attempt failed and Wa-Hi ran out the clock.

Richland Coach Fran Rish called it the breaks of the game, but said that the week's layoff hadn't done the team any good. Timing was off and the fumbles hurt bad, he said.

There'll be some work on defense for the Bombers as they prepare for the invasion of the Bulldogs from Pasco next Friday night.

CRUSHER — A trio of Richland players come in from above and below Friday night to apply a crusher to Brent Wooten, Walla Walla back, in the game at Walla Walla. Those with numbers showing are George Stephens, (17 on right), and Gary Armstrong (70) moving in.
