

TRI-CITIES ATHLETE OF THE WEEKALEX CHAPMAN, SR., RICHLAND FOOTBALL

The Bombers' standout receiver and defensive back got off to a big start in Week 1, leading Richland to a 38-27 win over No. 2 Skyline on Sept. 2.

Offensively, Chapman caught eight passes for 193 yards, including touchdowns of 76 and 36 yards from quarterback Paxton

Chapman

vaulted Richland to the top spot in Stevens.

On the defensive side, Chapman picked off a pass, one of six turnovers the Bombers forced in the second half.

The victory vaulted Richland to the top spot in the Associated Press Class 4A state poll, and it earned coach Mike Neidhold the Seattle Seahawks High School Coach of the Week honors along with Royal's Wiley Allred.

Editor's note: The Tri-Cities Athlete of the Week will regularly run each Thursday.

Dr. Ray Stroup
Chiropractic
Physician

Isaac Butts
Director of Physician
Relations

Alex Chapman

Richland, Senior
Football, WR

8 Catches
193 yards
2 Touchdowns
1 Interception