WIAA HONORS

Richland's Adam Weissenfels and Royal's Alonso Hernandez-Rangel were named WIAA Athletes of the Week after leading their respective teams to state football titles.

Weissenfels, a senior, had an impressive 4A state championship game against Woodinville with three interceptions, 5.5 tackles, a touchdown reception and 77 yards in punt returns. He also made good on all four of his PATs.

Hernandez-Rangel helped the Knights to their third consecutive 1A state title, knocking off Meridian 33-27. He had 143 yards rushing and three touchdowns. On defense, he had 6.5 tackles, including two quarterback sacks.

Also earning honors was Hanford bowler Sara Harris, who rolled 200 or better in three of four games last week. She is averaging 212 pins per game for the Falcons.
