It took one half of football Friday night before the Chiawana Riverhawks settled down to roll past Richland, winning their Mid-Columbia Conference season opener 38-7.

Sophomore quarterback JP Zamora completed passes to six different Chiawana receivers, including a TD pass to four of them. And the Riverhawks defensive unit got in on the fun, holding the Bombers to just 119 yards of total offense and forcing four turnovers.

"Our coaches really talked to us at halftime," said Zamora. We're sure they did.

Richland had jumped up early, as Bombers QB Harrison Westover found speedy Ben Fewel on a slant pattern for a 47-yard touchdown play and a 7-0 Richland lead.

Zamora eventually responded with two scoring strikes - a 36-yarder to Kobe Singleton and a 6-yard loft to Dion Lee.

Richland coach Mike Neidhold said he felt good at halftime only being down one score.

"I told our guys the game hadn't decided itself yet," Neidhold said.

At the other end of the grandstand, Chiawana coach Steve Graff told his guys to shake it off.

"We said, 'OK, that's over with,'" said Graff. "You hope they don't look like it's the first game of the season. But it happens. They came out in the second half, settled down and went to work."

Zamora opened the third quarter with a 30-yard scoring strike to Kobe Young, and 103 seconds later the defensive unit struck.

Westover took the snap in the shotgun formation and immediately had to run to his left when Chiawana sophomore defensive lineman Isaiah Anderson - a state champion wrestler this past February - broke through the line of scrimmage and made a beeline for the quarterback.

Anderson just about had the takedown when he slapped the ball loose from Westover's hands. Defensive lineman Bridger Feldmann scooped up the loose ball and rambled into the end zone from 8 yards away.

In a span of 1 minute, 43 seconds, Chiawana had gone from leading 12-7 to 24-7, and it was never close again.

"Our defense gets after it," said Graff. "We send five guys every time."

The Riverhawks added two fourth quarter scores - a 17-yard pass from Zamora to Gabe Schilz, and a 21-yard run from backup Sam Buggs in the waning minutes.

Zamora looked impressive in the second half, and he finished with 193 yards passing.

"The coaches told us at halftime to stick to what we do best," said Zamora, who appreciates the talented receivers he has to throw to. "It's crazy. Every single one of those guys are D-1 recruits. I just set up, looking for the mismatches."

"While Graff enjoyed the victory, it becomes bittersweet because it's against his best friend.

"I feel bad, because it's fun to play against those guys," he said. "But Mike told me after the game 'Now we know what we have to do to get better.' They'll get it fixed."

Neidhold agreed. "We need to get better," he said. "It's just one game. They're aware of what the task is. They're aware of what it means to play here. They're gonna be fine."
